Brandt donates $100,000 to Alberta flood relief

Company's generosity recognized at the Halo High Water Benefit Concert and Telethon on August 4

REGINA SK — Brandt's $100,000 donation to Alberta flood relief was celebrated as part of the Halo High Water Benefit Concert and Telethon in Calgary on August 4, 2013. - This is a story of Canadians helping Canadians — and a company committed to sharing their profit with communities in need nationwide, where Brandt employees live and work.

Shaun Semple (President, Brandt Group of Companies) and Gavin Semple (Chairman, Brandt Group of Companies) attended the August 4 concert and presented the cheque in support of Alberta flood victims. -

"We care about the things that matter to our customers and our employees, and we are honoured to be part of the effort to restore these communities," said Shaun Semple. "It's one way we can express our gratitude to the people and the communities who drive our success as a company, every day."

The benefit concert brought some of the biggest names in music together to raise money for the Calgary Foundation's Flood Rebuilding Fund. Donations of $10 can still be made by texting HHW to 20222.
